Announcing eDocAmerica's newest service: Ask eDent

Have you ever wished that you could just ask a Dentist a question without having to make an appointment? Now, you can do that very thing through eDocAmerica's newest feature, Ask eDent.

Ask eDent questions will be fielded by Dr. Robert L. Tramel, DDS. Dr. Tramel has maintained a private practice in Family Dentistry in Little Rock, Arkansas for the past 26 years. The primary focuses of his practice are preventive dentistry, patient education, aesthetics and implant restoration.

Here are examples of the oral health topics and questions that Dr. Tramel will be able to address for

Ask eDent clients:

Cosmetic dentistry - What options are available for tooth whitening? How complicated is it to apply veneers to the teeth? Can you provide me with information regarding dental implants?

Oral health problems - What new treatments are available for temporomandibular joint (TMJ) syndrome? Can you help me with my bad breath? What can be done about gum disease?

Dental procedures - Is antibiotic prophylaxis necessary for all heart conditions? Do you have suggestions for dealing with the anxiety that I feel at the dentist's? Do all dental procedures have to hurt?
